The New Year is upon us, meaning that it is time to once again look ahead to the coming year (and semester). Many of you have made resolutions related to your academics, diet, or exercise routine. Resolutions are a good way of reflecting upon the previous year and looking to make the future a little brighter. Our challenge to you is this: Make a resolution to pay forward any good will bestowed upon you this year. Keep the Aggie Spirit alive and well! We hope that you enjoy the remainder of your break and we look forward to seeing you once spring classes have begun.

Thanks and Gig ’em!

Serving Aggieland

“The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.” - Mohandas Gandhi

These immortal words of Mohandas Gandhi live on in the daily lives of many students on the Texas A&M University campus. In fact, Aggies boast that we host “the largest, one-day, student-run service project in the nation,” the Big Event. Selfless Service is even one of Texas A&M’s official core values.

The Regents’ Scholars Program encourages all students to “pay it forward” and serve the community in some sense. The Regents’ Scholars Student Organization (RSO) participates in several service activities throughout the year such as Replant, Big Event, going to a nursing home to visit with the residents, and many more. To find more service based organizations, please check out studentactivities.tamu.edu/online/search/index.

So what happens if you want to serve, but you aren’t sure where to go? Well Texas A&M has just the resource for you! AggieServe: Students Serving Aggieland is “a volunteer opportunity directory that connects Texas A&M University students, faculty, and staff to agencies and opportunities in the Bryan/College Station area.” On their website, studentactivities.tamu.edu/online/aggieserve, you can search by keyword or date range so that you can find the project that suits you best.

There is no reason you can’t get involved and give back in the new year. So do something good for the community, build your resume, and have fun!

By now many of you are heading back to school, settling into your college homes, and if you’re like many students you’re feeling a little post-winter break slump. Sure it’s great to be back (well, minus the homework bit), but all that bonding with family and friends you did over the holidays might leave you feeling a little lonely.

Make a FaceTime Date
Whether it is through your phone or computer, use this video-chat program to hang out with your friends and family. With a simple tap you can connect from anywhere and include a friendly face in your phone calls.

Mail an Old Fashioned Snail Mail Letter
I am a firm believer that a good piece of mail can turn a bad day into a good one, so give someone’s day a lift by sending off a bit of snail mail. Send mom a postcard, write a letter to your BFF, or pen a note to your grandparents. Then stamp it and send it off!

Have a Long-Distance TV Party
Lots of shows are just starting up after the holiday break, but being away from your friends and family doesn’t mean you can’t watch Grey’s Anatomy with your kid sister anymore. Make a phone or texting date and watch together, or if you’re in a different time zone wait until the next day and log on to the web to watch the latest episodes together. Most TV stations air full episodes on their websites. Another option is to DVR your favorite shows.
